Welcome to Berlin

We are extremely pleased to welcome you to Berlin for the 29th World Congress on Ultrasound in Obstetrics and Gynecology.

A vibrant modern city, Berlin is not only celebrated for its culture and history but ‘is among the largest and most diverse regions for science in Europe’ (www.berlin.de 2018), making it an exciting destination for our international forum of education and scientific research.

Submit your abstract to ISUOG 2019 and have the chance to present at what attendees rate as the leading event in the field of imaging. ISUOG 2019 provides the best opportunity to learn from leading world experts, share your work with like-minded attendees and catch up on the latest innovative research.

We look forward to seeing you in Berlin and hope you will enjoy a rich week of scientific and cultural discovery at ISUOG 2019!

Essential information

- Abstracts must be submitted online. Please follow the instructions detailed at https://www.isuog.org/events/world-congress/call-for-papers.html
- Your abstract email confirmation, which you will receive after submission, will contain your Congress registration code.
- The official language of the Congress is English.
- If you do not want to present your abstract orally please select this option during submission.
- Accepted abstracts will be published in a supplement to Ultrasound in Obstetrics and Gynecology (UOG). By submitting your abstract you agree to transfer the copyright to ISUOG should your abstract be accepted.
- All presentations will be recorded and may be selected for inclusion on the OnDemand portal. Recordings will run online but will not be downloadable.

For more regular updates on the scientific program, invited faculty and CME accreditation please visit the Congress website www.isuog.org/WorldCongress

Session types explained

Accepted abstracts may be presented in the following ways:

Oral communication (OC)
Presented within the main sessions, OC abstract authors are allocated 5 minutes for their presentation (of no more than 5 slides), plus 3 minutes for discussion.

Short oral presentation (OP)
OP abstract authors are allocated 2 minutes to orally present their poster (1 slide only), plus 2 minutes for discussion.

Poster discussions (P)
Poster discussions take place in the Hubs. These are intimate, flexible and friendly spaces designated to offer the author the opportunity to meet delegates interested in their research, discuss any comments and answer questions on their work.

Electronic posters (EP)
Abstracts accepted as view only posters are available for viewing throughout the Congress on the On Demand stations located at the ISUOG lounge.

All OC, OP, P & EP presentations are published in the abstract book and online.
