

ISUOG Basic Training Fee structure for livestreaming

ISUOG is proud to be launching a pilot scheme for the hosting of Basic Training courses via livestream, in order to improve global access to Basic Training. The fee structure for this scheme is as follows:

Country hosting	Hosting fee	Membership fee *
I. Low resource countries (Hinari list)	Not required, no minimum delegates required	1 year free to trainees £10 membership to non- trainees
II. Middle income countries (not in the Hinari list)	£200 required, includes up to 20 delegates	Additional delegates (whether trainee or non-trainee) above minimum £10 each
III. High income countries	£500 (hosting fee only)	£10 per delegate required in addition if trainees £25 per delegate required in addition if non-trainees

* ISUOG will provide 1 year complimentary ISUOG basic membership for all trainee and non-trainee attendees starting from the time of the course.

Please see the official HINARI list on the WHO website (HINARI lists A and B)
<https://www.who.int/hinari/eligibility/en/>

Please see a list of lower and upper middle countries not included in the HINARI list and high income countries not included in the HINARI list via the World Bank website

<https://datahelpdesk.worldbank.org/knowledgebase/articles/906519-world-bank-country-and-lending-groups>